

Products, training and operational support services for professional work at height and rescue

Chrysalis casualty stretcher

MS01

Versatile roll stretcher with patented integral casualty harness

Conforms to dynamic performance requirements of EN 361 (full body fall arrest harness). With 125 kg mass.

Made from reinforced coated fabric which gives unbeatable weight to strength. Contains full body casualty harness providing an unrivalled combination of fit, comfort and strength. Quick buckle system makes use fast and simple.

- Tested with 4m fall, mass of 125 kg
- Tested with 140 kg in static vertical lift.
- Integral casualty restraint harness
- Has 6 patient restraint straps to keep casualty secure
- 1 head restraint system
- 1 vertical lift point
- High visibility. High abrasion resistant outer case.
- Retaining straps aligned for rapid fastening
- Integral support stirrup for vertical lifting
- Harness retained completely flat during storage
- Minimal movement needed by casualty during fitting of harness
- Removable interior stiffening sheet
- All components machine washable
- Rolls-up to fit durable PVC storage bag with carrying straps
- Stretcher comes complete with lifting bridle and protective bag

Patented GB 2 403 422

Specifications:

Size:	n/a
Materials:	Polyamide /polyester load bearing elements with PVC cover and plastic fittings. Stainless steel buckles.
EN test Mass:	125kg with 4m fall
Loading:	125 kg dynamic, 140 kg static
Weight (kg):	8.20
Conformity:	93/42/EEC(Class 1)
Markets:	All forms of rescue and casualty handling

Specifications may change without notice.